AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 15th Day of August, 1745.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty Second of this Inſtant Auguſt, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the Nineteenth Day of September next.

Venice, Auguſt 6, N. S. The Spaniards in Italy ſent two Detachments upon the 28th towards the Huſſars Quarters on the other Side of the Tanaro, who came within Half a Mile of the Auſtrian advanced Poſts, and filed off towards the Left towards the Tanaro, oppoſite to Monte Caſtello, the King of Sardinia's Quarters, which kept the whole Army in Alarm the whole Night. In the Morning they found the Spaniards had retired back to their Camp. It is conjectured that they have made theſe Motions to reconnoitre the Ground with an Intent to change their Camp; and the Deſerters gave out, that it was impoſſible for them to remain in their preſent Situation for Want of Proviſions, and particularly Bread: That for the laſt three Days, they had diſtributed Rice to the Soldiers inſtead of it. The Spaniards began the Siege of Serravalle, a ſmall Fort with a ſlender Garriſon, upon the 23d paſt, and although they employed Cannon and 7000 Men, by the Letters of the 29th it had not ſurrendred. There is not above one third Part of the heavy Artillery as yet arrived at the Spaniſh Camp, they having met with great Difficulties in drawing it over the Mountains from the Nature of the Roads, and the Want of Draft Cattle, to ſupply which they have been obliged to employ the Peaſants in drawing the Cannon. It is ſtill ſaid, that as ſoon as they have received a ſufficient Number of Battering Pieces, they will attempt the Siege of Tortona, which is well garriſoned, and rendered much ſtronger by M. Bertol, the King of Sardinia's Chief Engineer, having levelled an Eminence, which formerly commanded Part of the Works of the Fort. The Spaniards call their whole Force 66,000, viz. Don Philip 15,000, M. de Gages 15,000, M. Maillebois 16,000, M. Lautrec 12,000, the Genoeſe 8000. To this they add, that the King of Naples is ſending a Body of Troops by the Romagna, to attack the Modeneſe, in order by this Diverſion to facilitate the Paſſage of the Grand Army into the Milaneſe. The Auſtrians and Sardinians are advantagiouſly encamped between the Tanaro and the Po. The Auſtrians have their Head Quarters at Baſſignana on the Left, near where the Tanaro runs into the Po, over which they have two Bridges. The King of Sardinia has his Head Quarters at Monte Caſtello in the Center, and the Right extends near to Alexandria: They have four Bridges over the Tanaro, to communicate with the Huſſar and Waraſdin Quarters. The Count de Sinzan remains with 10 Battalions to obſerve the Motions of M. de Lautrec at Saorgio, having detached the Prince of Baden with ſeven Battalions to the King of Sardinia near Alexandria. Recruits and Horſes come daily from Germany. By the Letters of the 2d of Auguſt from the Auſtrian Camp, Serravalle continued ſtill to defend itſelf, to the great Honour of the Governor. Upon the 30th there was an Exchange of Priſoners. The Spaniards have fortified a Caſſine at Caſtel Ceriol, oppoſite the Right Wing of the Piemonteſe, and poſted a large Detachment behind it, who frequently ſend out Parties. On the 31ſt a Detachment of Auſtrians attacked one of theſe Parties, killed about 40, and took 24 Priſoners.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army in Bohemia, from the 10th to the 12th of Auguſt, N. S. dated from their Head Quarters at Johanniſberg near Konigingratz.

UPON the 10th of Auguſt the Pruſſians continued to decamp by Degrees from Chlom, and according to the Advices juſt received, they have detached two Regiments of Infantry from the Head Quarters to Schmirſchitz, to replace one Regiment of Horſe and one of Infantry, which are advanced from this laſt Place to Semoniz.

Lieutenant Colonel Monro ſent Advice, that the above-mentioned Troops had paſſed the Aupa, and were taking the Road to Nachod.

A Pruſſian Officer, who was made Priſoner by the Huſſars, gave Information alſo, that the whole Corps, which had been poſted between the Aupa and the Metau at Zwol, conſiſting of two Regiments of Horſe, two of Foot, ſeveral Battalions of Grenadiers, and the Regiment of Black Huſſars, had decamped, and taken the Road to Braunau; by which Place, according to our laſt Advices, five Regiments had again paſſed, following Prince Dietrich's Rout, as is believed.

This

This Morning ſix Battalions, each of which had with them three Pieces of Cannon, and 18 Squadrons of the Enemy, foraged towards the Town of Konigingratz. Upon this Occaſion our Uhlans had ſome Skirmiſhes with the Pruſſian Huſſars, ſeveral of whom they killed, without any Loſs to themſelves but that of one Horſe.

Prince Charles called a Council of War, in which it was reſolved to make a Motion in the Combined Army, in order the better to diſcover the real Strength of the Pruſſians, ſince their having detached ſo many Men towards Nachod and Braunau.

General Ballayra with his Horſe was order'd to advance from Przelautſch to Switkow near Pardubitz.

Upon the 11th three Pruſſian Huſſars were brought in Priſoners, whom our Uhlans had taken near Neuſtadt. From them we learnt, that there was ſtill one Battalion of their Troops at Neuſtadt, beſides one Squadron of Huſſars.

Prince Charles, after having reconnoitred the Ground on the other Side the Adler, gave Orders that the Quarter Maſters ſhould mark out the new Camp, which the Combined Army is to take on the other Side of that River.

We were informed that the King of Pruſſia had order'd all the Iron Ovens to be removed from Jaromirz to Slany upon the Frontiers of Glatz, and that he had order'd all the others to be deſtroy'd, all his Corn being conſumed.

General Nadaſti advanced upon the 12th to Bohuſlaw; one of our Pulks of Tartars left him, in order to rejoin us the ſame Day.

Vienna, Auguſt 11, N. S. Count Wurmbrand the firſt Bohemian Ambaſſador, ſet out the Day before Yeſterday for Franckfort. Count Sinzheim the firſt Bavarian Ambaſſador, ſets out from hence this Day, and ſtops at Munich.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 14, N. S. On the 11th Inſtant, the Princeſs of Denmark went for the firſt time ſince her Lying-in to the Chapel Royal, where the Ceremony of her Churching was performed with the uſual Solemnity. There was a very numerous Court at the Palace, and a grand Entertainment at Chriſtianbourg, upon that Occaſion. The young Prince is in good Health. This Court propoſes to ſet out next Friday the 17th Inſtant for Holſtein. The Chriſtianburg, a Ship belonging to the Aſiatick Company of Denmark, arrived here Yeſterday Morning from Canton, and the Officers report, that our Cruiſers in the Eaſt-Indies have lately made ſeveral very rich Captures upon the French; particularly that four China Ships have been taken in the Sunda Streights, three of them by Men of War, and the fourth, by a Privateer; that a Ship bound from Manila to Pondichen, and another from St. Maurice to the Coaſt, have likewiſe fallen into the Hands of our Men of War. They add, that the Manila Ship bore a Mooriſh Flag, and muſt be of extraordinary Value (as was reported by the Supercargo who made his Eſcape) having 200000 Pieces of Eight, and two Cheſts of Gold, beſides other conſiderable Articles on board.

Berlin, Auguſt 17, N. S. The reigning Prince of Deſſau ſet out Yeſterday for Kopenich, in order to review the Prince of Pruſſia's Regiment of Horſe, and two others of Foot, beſides one Battalion of Grenadiers, and the two Regiments of Huſſars, which will altogether reinforce the Magdebourg Corps; 68 Carriages full of Warlike Stores are going thither, and Yeſterday 15 Pieces of Cannon were embarked in Boats for that Place. The Commiſſary of the Hoſpitals has alſo taken the ſame Road. They are raiſing ſome new Companies of Huntſmen, and it is believed that a Corps of Troops will be poſted upon the Frontiers of Luſall, whilſt the others are acting on the Side of Magdebourg or Halle. The Gates of Brandenbourg and Potzdam are paliſadoed, and 400 Men employed thereupon. The Burghers are exerciſing, and are preparing for a vigorous Defence in Caſe of Attack.

Hague, Aug. 24, N. S. The laſt Letters from the Army have brought no News of Importance. His Royal Highneſs was taking proper Meaſures for the Defence of the Rupel, in caſe the French ſhould attempt to paſs it; and for the Security of Antwerp. Prince Waldeck's Compagnie Franche, with a Detachment of Dutch Dragoons, happening laſt Week to meet a Body of about 200 Graffins, had a ſmart Skirmiſh with them, in which the Dutch Detachment was victorious, and took two Captains, ſix Lieutenants, and about 100 Men, Priſoners. The Hanoverian Horſe and Huſſars that retired to Oſtend, and ſome of Rich's and Cope's Dragoons which took Refuge in Nieuport after the Fight of Melle, are all (except one Veſſel with about 30 Horſes, that was ſunk by a Bomb in coming out of Oſtend, and of which the People were ſaved) arrived in Zealand, and gone forward by Water to Lillo, to proceed from thence to the Army. His Pruſſian Majeſty has publiſhed a Manifeſto againſt Saxony; and his Troops were to enter that Country on Friday laſt. Count Maurice of Naſſau, who has been ſome Time in England for the Recovery of his Health, is arrived here.

Whitehall, Auguſt 17.

Letters from Edinburgh of the 11th Inſtant bring an Account, that a French Veſſel of 16 or 18 Guns had appeared on the Weſt Coaſt of Scotland, which, after having cruized for ſome Days off the Iſlands of Bara and Uuſt, ſtood in for the Coaſt of Lochaber, and had there landed betwixt the Iſlands of Mull and Skie, ſeveral Perſons, one of whom, from the general Report, and from ſeveral concurring Circumſtances, there is the greateſt Reaſon to believe is the Pretender's Son.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 17.

On the 12th Inſtant, in the Morning, Vice Admiral Martin, in the Edinburgh, with the Yarmouth, Prince Frederick, Hampton Court, and Glouceſter, and the Hinchingbrook and Taviſtock Sloops, anchored in Plymouth Sound; and brought in with them a French Man of War called the Panther, of 20 Guns and 260 Men, commanded by M. Keruzaret, of the Order of St. Louis; a ſmall French Privateer Schooner quite new, and ſix Days out from Bayonne, of 64 Men, two Carriage and 14 Swivel Guns, and a French Merchant Ship called the St. Paul, belonging to Rochelle, from Leogane and Havanna, laden with Sugar and Indigo, with two Spaniſh Officers Paſſengers, viz. Admiralty Office, Auguſt 17.

Extract of a Letter from Commodore Barnett to Mr. Corbett. Dated at Sea the 28th of January, 1744, on board the Deptford.

ON the 25th in the Morning, I ſaw three large Ships coming down, and diſcovering ſoon that they were French built, I concluded that they were two China Ships under Convoy of the Fifty Gun Ship from Pondicherrie. I got under Sail to receive them, and ſo effectually diſguiſed this Ship and the Preſton, that the Enemy came within Musket-ſhot of me, making no Doubt of our being Dutch Ships till we ſtruck the Dutch and hoiſted our proper Colours; but they were prepared, and fired as ſoon as we did. I ordered Lord Northesk to board one of the China-men as ſoon as poſſible, leaving the Commodore for me to board; but ſome of the firſt Shot from the Enemy cut the Tiller Ropes of both our Ships, as we were ſheering on board them, by which Accident the Opportunity was loſt, and I feared ſome of them would have eſcaped; but I ſoon got in a Situation to ſtop them. The Preſton was not long getting again into her Station, and they all ſtruck in about three Glaſſes; but the Fifty Gun Ship is not one of them, nor did they ſee her. They are the Dauphin, the Jaſon, and the Hercules, from China, Ships of about 700 Tons, with 30 Guns, and 150 Men each, very deeply and richly laden, chiefly with Tea, China Ware, and Silk; and the Supercargoes tell me, that the Cargo of each would in France have been worth more than One hundred thouſand Pounds Sterling. Their Captains made as good a Defence as could have been expected from them.

War Office, Auguſt 13, 1745.

It is their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices Directions, that all Officers belonging to His Majeſty's Land Forces ſerving in England or Scotland, do immediately repair to their reſpective Poſts.

Will. Yonge.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 17, 1745.

Whereas notwithſtanding the repeated Admonitions and Directions of the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, for the more ſpeedy holding the Courts Martial to enquire into the Conduct and Behaviour of ſeveral Commanders and Officers of His Majeſty's Fleet in the late Engagement near Toulon, the ſame hath not hitherto been effected, which has been in great Meaſure owing to the Number and Diſtance of the Witneſſes to be examined previous to ſuch Trials, as well as to the Variety and Extent of the Materials neceſſary for the ſeveral Charges, ſome of which have been but lately exhibited:

Their Lordſhips thinking it abſolutely neceſſary to forward the ſaid Trials with all poſſible Diſpatch, in Conſideration of the Juſtice due to the Publick, of the many Inconveniencies the Service itſelf ſuffers, and of the great Hardſhips the Parties concerned, both as Evidences and Principals, labour under, until the Matters depending are determined, do hereby declare, that the ſaid Courts Martial are fixed for the firſt of October next, and do direct all Perſons concerned to prepare and hold themſelves in Readineſs to attend upon that Day, at ſuch Place as ſhall be appointed for the ſaid Trials. And furthermore, it is their Lordſhips expreſs Command and Direction, that all Witneſſes do pay immediate Obedience to ſuch Summons as they ſhall from Time to Time receive in Order to their Examinations, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril.
